

cerorio.

OUR BIRTHDAY NUMBER.

BEST PENNY PAPER EVER PUBLISHED.

You Can't Afford to Miss It.

PRICE ONE CENT.

NEW YORK, MONDAY, OCTOBER 8, 1888.

PRICE ONE CENT.

HER BRIDAL NIGHT IN JAIL

LILLIE'S IRATE STEPFATHER SPOILS HER AND MICHAEL'S NUPTIALS.

They Married Despite Mr. Arendt's Objections and He Charged Her with Stealing Seven Dollars—Policeman Madden Brought Discord Where Happiness Reigned and Put Lillie in a Cold Cell.

Pretty Miss Lillie Irving and handsome Michael Cooney, a car-driver, decided that marriage would never be a failure, if they were the contracting parties.

Lillie has a stepfather who did not take the same view of the case. His name is John C. Arendt. He is janitor of a big office building at 108 Broad street. He was perfeetly willing that his stepdaughter should regard Michael with a fond, sisterly affection, but nothing more. Lillie is twentytwo, old enough to choose for herself, and she did so. Lillie started out at 8 o'clock last evening, and, accompanied by her loved one, went to and, accompanied by her loved one, went to a German Protestant church at Sixteenth street and First avenue, and there they were married. Only a few invited guests, known to be in favor of the marriage, were present. When Step-papa Arendt heard the news he became furious, and about the same time missed $7 from a bureau drawer in his parlor. He at once suspected Lillie of being the thief, for no other reason, apparently, than that she married against his wishes. He hurried to the Old s'ip station and revealed his suspicions to Police Capt. McLaughlin.

"Do you want to have her arrested?" asked the latter.

"Sure," responded the irate parent. Policeman Thomas J. Madden was sent out to find Lillie. He found that Mr. Cooney had rented avariments in a tenement. House at 446 West Thirty-ninth street. Thither he went, and found Mr. and Mrs. Cooney at home. It was 10 o'clock, but a dim light burned in their rooms.

Before he rapped at the door he heard mysterious, sweet-sounding murmurings, interspersed with sibilant reverberations that might have been caused in the act of kissing. His knock produced instant silence.

After a long wait a voice in dulcet tones asked:

"Who's there?" a German Protestant church at Sixteenth asked: "Who's there?" Open in the name of the law," answered Oh, oh; dear, dear; what can the matter "he heard before pretty Mrs. Cooney pened the door.

Then he told her what she was wanted for.
She became very indignant and declared it was "a piece of mere spite on papa's part."
Bhe went with the officer, and her husband

She went with the officer, and her husband went along, too.

The station-house was reached about 11 o'clock, and Lillie was conducted to a cell. There she cried herself to sleep. Michael returned home with only half a heart.

He was in the Tombs Court bright and early this morning though. So was Mr. Arendt, Lillie and the policeman. Mr. Arendt was not so sure this morning that his daughter stole his gold, and asked permission of Justice Patterson to withdraw the complaint. His request was granted and the young wife was discharged. She hurried sway with Michael to continue their interrupted lovemaking, rupted lovemaking.

GIANTS PRAISED BY GOV. HILL.

Ho Sends Them a Letter of Congratulation on the Pennant Victory.

The Giants are mightily tickled over the following letter which they have received from Gov. Hill in reference to their fight for the baseball pennant:

EXECUTIVE MANSION. ALBANY, Oct. 5. 1885. 5

Charles Burnham, Eeq., Broadway and Thirteenth street,
New York City.

DEAR Sin: I have your letter of Oct. 1, and it gives me great satisfiction to send my hearty conparatizations upon their victory. I have followed the contest for the League pennant through the summer, and it has been my good fortune to watch, in New York City and elsewhere, some of the best games which have been part of its successes.

The 'Giants' seem to have taken the New York State motto for their own. 'Excessior!' cer-tainly applies to their stature, and they evidently determined to make their scores spread the motto the season through.
With best wishes to the Club, individually and collectively, I remain very truly yours, DAVID B. HILL.

Arrangements for the big benefit to be given the Giants at the Star Theatre on Sunday evening are all complete. Manager Burnham has received the following from Congressman Cummings, who was invited to present the Giants with the pennant:

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES, U. S., \ WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 5, 1888. \
DEAR SIR: I accept with sincere pleasure your invitation to present the pennant to the New York Club on the evening of the 14th. Yours very truly, AMOS J. CUMMINGS.

The programme of the entertainment will be as follows:

Sexist from Dookstader's minsurels; recitation, Jeffrey Hawley; sole, Mark Smith; speciaity, Lew Dockstader; song, Laura Moore; baseball song, Digby Bell; song, Laura Joyce Bell; "How Casey Lost the Game," De Wolf Hopper; specialty, Charlie Reed; recitation, Maurice Barrymore; song, Eugene Oudin; specialty, Harry Kernell; song, John K. McWade; trio, 'Read the Answer in the Stara," Laura Joyce Bell, De Wolf Hopper and Digby Bell. Bob Billiare will either sing, recite or carry a bat.

The proceeds of the entertainment will be divided between the eighteen players of the divided between the eighteen players of the New York team.

MR. CARNEGIE AT HOME.

Me Would May Nothing of Politics but Had

An EVENING WORLD reporter this morning called upon Mr. Andrew Carnegie, who has just returned from Europe and who was found at his house, 5 West Fifty-first street. Mr. Carnegie would say nothing regarding the political question and touched briefly upon his coaching trip with Mr. Blaine, which he said was a thoroughly enjoyable affair fully appreciated by both Mr. Blaine and himself. He added that it was of great physical benefit to all of the party.

Mr. Carnegie's house is at present in disorder, owing to the numerous improvements which are being made in its arrangements.

WINDING UP THE SEASON.

Pittsourg to-day.

Anson wants $10,000 for Williamson. The Giants have won every series but that with The Giants can play but six more league games Jun Murie bas $10,000 in cold cash which says the Giants will win the world's champtonship.

SWORE TO DO JUSTICE TO ALL hief Justice Melville W. Faller Formally Installed.

ISPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD, Washington, Oct. 8 .- Chief Justice Fuller vas formerly installed at noon to-day.

Long before the hour set for the meeting of the court the chamber was crowded to the doors. More than half of those present were ladies, prominent among them being Mrs. Fuller and six of her eight daughters, Misses Grace, Maud. Mary. Mildred, Pauline and Catha rine. Many Senators' wives and other ladie prominent in society sat behind the railing of

Within the bar were the Attorney General, Judge Thurman and a half hundred of the leading lawyers of the country.

The ceremony of installation was very

The ceremony of installation was very simple.

Promptly at 12 o'clock Marshal Wright rose in his place and announced the approach of the Court.

Then, attired in their sombre judicial robes, all the Associate Justices with the exception of Justice Matthews, who is absent, entered from the robing-room and slowly filed to their p'aces behind the long bar.

The Marshal then recited the usual formula proclaiming the Court to be in session. Whereon Chief Justice Fuller, having previously taken the oath of allegiance in the coffice of the Clerk of the Court, entered the court chambers and took a seat at the desk of the Clerk.

Justice Miller, Senior Associate, then arose and announced that the commission of Melville Fuller as Chief Justice of the Court had been received, and directed the clerk to read it.

read it.

At the close of the reading Justice Fuller rose and, in a clear, firm voice, recited the oath of office, swearing to do justice "to the rich or the poor, without fear or favor,"

He then retired to the robing room, and donned the flowing robe of the Chief-Justice, after which he passed to his seat behind the bar.

donned the flowing robe of the Chief-Justice, after which he passed to his seat behind the bar.

The crowd pressed eagerly forward to get a good look at the new Chief Justice and he smile: faintly.

There was a low murmur of applause, which was quickly checked by the Marshal.

Judge Fuller then announced that out of deference to a time-honored custom the Court would at once adjourn to give the members an opportunity to make the formal call of ceremony upon the President of the United States.

The Chief-Justice and his associates then left the court chamber, and hundreds present forced their way to the bar to shake hands with Judge Thurman, who thereupon held an informal reception, grasping heartily the hands of all who approached him. He appeared in excellent health and spirits.

The members of the Court then made their way to carriages and drove to the White House.

NO ORIECTION TO COL. MURPHY Mayor Hewitt Says He Wouldn't Mind

Running on the Same Ticket with Him. Mayor Hewitt did not get in from Ringwood until after noon to-day. He found the usual crowd of newspaper reporters waiting

"I haven't seen a newspaper since Saturday," he said, "but somebody told me yesterday that I was nominated by the County Democracy. No, I haven't written any letter yet, and I haven't anything to say at present. I shall do nothing until I hear from the com-mittee of the County Democracy. Then, after I have given them an answer, I shall re-ply to the letter from the Uitizens' Commit-after I have given them an answer. I shall reply to the letter from the Uitizens' Committee."

"Is it true that you object to the nomination of Col. M. C. Murphy for Sheriff on the same ticket with yourself?"

"No. So far as I know, Mr. Murphy is a good fellow, and I have no objection whatever to running on the same ticket with him. I would as soon run with him as against him. But perhaps he may object to running on the same ticket with me. Perhaps you'd better ask him that," and the Mayor laughed heartily at his little joke.

Late this afternoon it was rumored around the City Hall that Assistant District-Attorney James Fitzgerald would be the County Democracy nomines for Sheriff.

This rumor startled the friends of Col. Murphy. It was said that Judge Power would favor Fitzgerald's nomination.

Mr. Henry Ciausen refuses to be a candidate for any office at the coming election. This information is given on the best of authority. The County Democracy leaders have been informed by Mr. Clausen that he would not accept any nomination on their ticket.

Senator Stadler, who is a warm personal friend of Mr. Clausen, said to-day: "Mr. Clausen told me that he was not a candidate for any office, and that under no circumstances would he accept a nomination." for any office, and that under no circum stances would be accept a nomination."

Held for Hitting the Driver.

James Simpson, the driver of an Avenue B car who was struck on the head with a brick because e helped to get a cross-town jigger on the track he helped to get a cross-town juger on the frack and prevented a gang of Fourteenth street rowdies from riling the cash-box, was able to appear in the Essex Market Police Court this moraling. On his complaint, John Pegnan, the leader of the gang, who is supposed to have thrown the brick at bimpson, was held in $1,000 for trial.

Under-Sheriff John Sexton walked into the Star office this afternoon and seized the entire plant to atisfy judgments amounting to $14,903, 12 in favor of George F. Perkins and others for white paper furnished that newspaper. The basiness manager saured the Departy Sheriff that the claim would be satisfied. There are five judgments in all.

Sir Bache Cunard's Libel Suit. Lawyers for Charles G. Franckion applied Judge O'Brien to-day for an order compelling Mr. Walllook, agent for Sir Bache Cunard, to answer questions here in regard to Sir Bache's English libel suit. Decision was reserved.

Seventy-three Miles Covered in Six Hours.

Good Scores Made in the Roadsculling Race.

Teemer Third and Ross Twenty Miles Behind the Lead.

A General Smash-Up of the Machines.

East Only Travels Seven Miles.

At the end of the first six hours of the roadsculler race at Madison Square Garden at 6 o'clock this morning Jacob Gaudaur had covered 73% miles, or an average of more than twelve miles an hour. That is almost 50 per cent. better than a road horse would ecomplish.

How the other contestants fared is shown n this table :

SIX O'CLOCK SCORE.

Conley.... 48 Hamm...... 41

Fully one thousand of the spectators renained to see the finish of the first six hours of this novel test of endurance.

Roadsculler races have been rowed in England within a few months, but the race had never been seen before in America.

The men leaped from their machines with agility and energy when the hour of 6 o'clock was announced this morning, and every one of them declared that he was in first-rat order, and not at all "played out." Why," said John Teemer, "I am just ready for breaktast. The strain is nothing. Tires a fellow to limber his knees on the sliding seat, that's about all." Largan declared that all his roadsculler lacked for perfect comfort was a cushion on the sliding seat The result of the night's work is given above.

The men were stripped and rubbed down by their trainers, and then walked in an everyday style down to the Ashland House, where some had breakfast while others went direct o bed to resume their racing again at 2 this afternoon.

At 2 o'clock this afternoon a crowd of enouraging proportions was rapidly assembling to witness the resumption of the novel contest. Full particulars of the afternoon's work will appear in THE EVENING WORLD'S

STORY OF THE TOURNAMENT'S OPENING.

When the racers shortly after midnight, with swelling, puffing biceps, set their little machines a spinning, there were fully eleven thousand people in the Garden.

They were ladies and gentlemen—such an audience, or, rather, gathering, of spectators as one seldom sees at such an entertainment. MANY WELL-ENOWN PACES.

MANY WELL-ENOWN FACES.

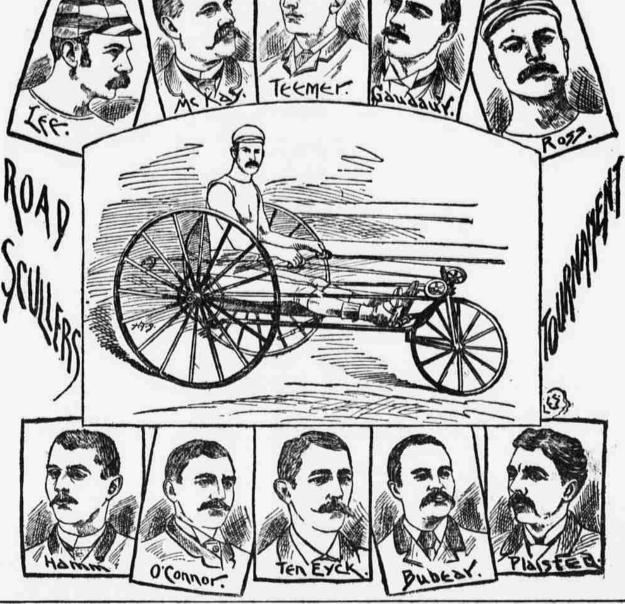

In the great pavilion, in the private boxes, on the reserved seats, and among the walking throng who filled the central inclosure were seen the faces of Charles E. Rice, A. L. Le Mercier, ex-Senator Kiernan, James Rascover, Dr. J. B. Stillwell, James Cisco, Miss Emma Carsey, Gus Heckler, J. E. Brennan, Charles S. Dixon, Sol Berliner, Marshall P. Wilder, Chauncey Clockt, Charles T. Davis, Addie Cora Reed, Charles T. Murray, S. C. Freeman, William B. Broe, of Pittsburg: Ed. Harrigan, Mrs. Tony Hart, J. Ambrose Butler, of Buffalo; H. L. Ensun, T. B. Ecker, William Richardson, Col. David B. Austin, and staff of the Thirteenth Regiment, Brooklyn; Col. Bob. Ingersoll, Coroner Messemer, E. F. Lanton, of Brooklyn; Comptroller Myers, Henry E. Abbey, Mart Hanley, Sergt, F. D. Condit and Company K, of the Thirteenth Regiment; Marcus Mayer, Charles Chatterton, Duncan B. Harrison and A. C. Wheeler, J. J. Brady, J. M. Monson, Col. Tom Ochiltree and Commissioner Jacob Hess.

Hess.

The great fair of the Anti-Poverty Society was concluded in the Garden at midnight on Saturday night and ere the people had fairly left the old building a corps of sixty-three carpenters, under the direction of Dr. Ed Plummer, without whom no sporting event could go on, proceeded to make a lightning transformation in the Garden.

Booths where pretty Anti-Poverty maidens had beguiled the masculine heart into tenderness and wheedled dimes from young men's purses in exchange for baubles, rich only as

(Continued on Third Page.)

GOV. HILL TO THE WORKERS.

Outline of His Great Effort in Cooper Union To-Night. Gov. Hill will arrive in town this after soon and will address the great labor meeting at the Cooper Union to-night. The friends of the Governor think that his peach to-night will be the greatest speech ne has as yet delivered. He will talk for nearly two bours, and the entire labor question will be gone over. He will explain rather than defend his acts as Governor. He will do so on account of the campaign lies that have been circulated regarding certain of his vetoes.

There is no doubt of Gov. Hill receiving a rousing reception at the meeting. It is expected that the large hall of Cooper Institute will be filled to overflowing. No tickets of admission are required, except to the platform.

form.

An attempt was made by a fussy delegate in the Central Labor Union yesterday to create some feeling against the movement of organized labor for Gov. Hill, but it failed, It was said the names of unions had been used to further the object of the mass-meeting to-night, but it was proven that the report was false. port was false.

The labor leaders are setting independently as individuals, and the rank and file of the 300 different organizations connected with the central body are doing likewise, and for the reason that they like the Governor and know him to be the best friend they ever had in the Gubernatorial chair in this State.

As an evidence of the genuineness of the movement in favor of Gov. Hill, the following names of the leading men of the Central

As an evidence of the genuineness of the movement in favor of Gov. Hill, the following names of the leading men of the Central Labor Union and in organized labor generally in this city and State are given.

Each of these is a strong supporter of the Governor: Ed Finkelstone, Matthew Barr, James P. Archubald, Philip Wentz, James McKim, John F. Cunningham, Walter Keech, John N. Bogert, Charles Rogers, Frank Paxter, George F. Murray, Joseph Nejedly, James E. Pell, Joseph Hallis, Bernard Campbell, Daniel Sinith, Samuel Riker, John F. Hill, Edward Barnes, John H. Clark, Edward J. Doutney, Henry G. Seaman, John E. Farren, C. C. Coon, James H. Kearney, J. O'Neill, Dennis Long, Horace L. Wells, E. H. Purdy, J. J. Thompson, J. A. Staunton, James McKenna, Cornelius Murray, Ed B. Murphy, Benjamin Woodruff, John W. Baist, Robert Farrell, Louis A. Schopps, Peter A. Flynn, James Mulgrew, William F. Keating, Thomas F. Senlly, Frank M. Horn, Nathan D. Boutelle, Andrew Corrigan, Edward O'Neill and Phillip J. Seannell.

Seanuell.

The Brooklyn wing of the United Labor party has repudiated the attempt to foist Warner Miller on the working people, and comes out openly in favor of Gov. Hill.

THREE DEADLY DAGGER STROKES.

An Italian Aqueduct Laborer Fatally Wounded by One of His Fellows. James Pulcastro, of 5 Clinton street, quarrelled with Robert Barnar li in a hallway near Yonkers last evening, drawing a dagger with the blade seven inches long and an inch wide, stabbed Bernardi in the abdomen, again in the a:m and the third time in the breast. Pulcastro then ran away, throwing the knife into the adjoining yard, where it was subsequently found by Officer Nolan. subsequently found by Officer Nolan.

Coroner Mitchell took Bernardi's antimortem statement and the wounded man was then taken to St. John's Hospital. This morning he is still alive, but is likely to die.
Pulcastro has not yet been caught. He is described as thirty-five years old, 5 feet 7 inches tail, medium build, very dark complexion, black mustache and blind in his right eye. He is, like Bernardi, an Aqueduct laborer. This morning an Italian who was blind in one eye was arrested by the Harlem police and arraigned in court as the murderer. It turned out, however, that, unlike Pulacetro, it was his left eye which was gone and he was discharged. He was Joseph Kemka, of 438 East One Hundred and Eleventh street. The Inti-Fruit-Stand Law Signed. Mayor Hewitt h is signed the ordinance probibiting sidewa k fruit-stands paying rent to propertyWILL M'QUADE BE TRIED AGAIN.

Newcombe Says No. Positively, While Mr. Semple Thinks Otherwise. Counsellor Richard S. Newcombe, speaking of ex-Alderman McQuade's case, says he is quite well satisfied that the junk-shop keeper will never be tried again. In his opinion the Court of Appeals, by its decision granting a new trial to McQuade, has not left a leg on which the prose-cution may stand. All the evidence which made the people's case in any way strong, he claims is now inadmissable. Assistant District Attorney Semple, who argued the case on appeal was seen by an EXENTER WORLD reporter this morning. He though Mr. Newcombe's conclusion was un-

Evening World reporter this morning. He though Mr. Newcombe's conclusion was unwarranted and said:

"From what I have read of the opinion, I think the case is far from being emasculated. The decision was based almost entirely upon error in the selection of the jury, and the only error found in the reception of evidence was the admission of testimeny to prove the flight to Canada of the co-conspirators of McQuade.

Mr. Semple is ratisfied that a second conviction of McQuade might be obtained gespite the ruling of the Appellate Cour.

The Day in Wall Street.

the day, and the markets for securities continue irregular, chiefly in cors quence of the wheat deal at the West, which is checking the export trade and acriously interfering with the commerce of the Canada Southern...

Cleve., Col., Clin. & Ind.
Cleve., Col., Clin. & Ind.
Chesapeake & Oblo.,
Chicago, Eurl. & Chicago,
Chicago, & Northwest...
Chicago, & Kesterin Himosa,
Chicago, & Kasterin Himosa,
Chicago, & Kasterin Himosa,
Chicago, & Kasterin Himosa,
Col., & Hocking Coal.
Col., & Hocking Coal.
Col., & Hocking Coal.
Colorado Coal & Iron,
Con. Polidated Giss.
Delaware, Lackawanna & Western,
Delaware & Hudeou,
Deneer & Rio Grande pfd.
Kast Tenn. Va. & Ga., 2d pfd.
Louisville & Nassurine
Lake Kris & Western,
Lak Y. Lake Erie & Western Y. Lake Erie & Western Y. Sang, & Vess. pfd. Norfolk & Western pfd. Northest Pacific pfd. Oregon Transcontinents: Oregon Improvement. Oreson Short Late. Pacific Mail. Pacific Masi.
Pulta-deplita & Housing.
Philadelphia & Housing.
Philadelphia Gastar & Evanwelle.
Pullman Palace Car Co.
Bich. & West Point Fer.
Rich. & West Point Fer.
Di. Faill & One ha.
St. Paul, Minn. & Munitoks.
Tegas Pacific. St. Fanl, Miss. & Mantices.
Tenn. Cosl & Iron.
Union Pacific
United States Kapress.
Wab. St. Louis & Pacific pril.
Western Union Telegraph.
Wheeling & Lake Krie

New York Markets.

New York Markets.

WHEAT.—December options opened at from $1.23 to $1.24%, against $1.21—Saturday's closing price. Immediately after the quotation settled to $1.23, and fluctuated between that figure and $1.24. At noon the quotation stood at $1.25), May options opened at from $1.26 to $1.28%, against $1.24\footnote{1.26}. May options opened at from $1.26 to $1.28%, against $1.24\footnote{1.26}. May options opened at from $1.26 to $1.28%, against $1.24\footnote{1.26}. May options opened at from $1.26 to $1.28\footnote{1.26}. May contracts were quoted at $1.24\footnote{1.26}. Market doil. Liverpool strons.

COTTON.—Futures opened steady. October was quoted 5 points aff at $2.30. Other months declined $ points. Nov., $2.47, Dec., $2.53, Jan., $2.27, June, $2.70. March, $2.79. Anril, $2.89, May, $2.77, June, $1.56. July, $10.15. Liverpool quiet.

COFFEE.—Market opened from, at an advance of from $2.50 to $4.50 points. Oct., $1.26; Nov., $13.35. Dec., $12.85, July.—; Aug., $12.85, Nov., $13.35. Dec., $12.85, July.—; Aug., $12.85, Imburg and Havre cables steady.

PERSOLUTION—Pipe Line certificates opened unchanged at $23.50, and declined to $2.50. Suosequently the quotation advanced to $2.50. and at noon stood at $2.50. Reversal is offered by the manufacturers of Dr. Sage's Ca-tarrh Remedy for a case of catarrh which they cannot cure. This remedy cures by its mind, south-ing, cleans ng and healing properties. Only 50 cents, by druggists.

IS MR. STARR CRIMINALLY LIABLE? Arrest of a Division Superintendent of the Pennsylvania Ratiroad. PEPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD. Pittsburg, Oct. 8 .- A. B. Starr, Superintendent of the Eastern Division of the Pittsburg, Fort Wayne and Chicago Railroad, was arrested in his office in Allegheny City Saturday on information made out by Attorney Collins at the instance of Frank B. Weyman of Weyman & Bro., tobacconists,

The information was brought under a law of 1865, making an employer, manager or person in authority criminally liable for injury done to any person where proper care has done to any person where proper care has not been taken to prevent such a disaster.

Under this statute the plaintiffs charge that Supt. Starr is criminally liable for the death of Miss Harriet Weyman at the Federal street crossing about a year ago.

In this case a street car in which she was riding was caught between the gates and she was knocked off and killed.

Supt. Starr, on notification of his arrest, immediately sent for his attorney and furnished $1,000 bail for a hearing this afternoon.

J. J. Gibbert, Assistant Solicitor of the same company, said last night: "It is abourd to suppose for an instant that Mr. Starr can be held liable under the law. He has taken all manner of precaution deemed necessary by the city ordinance or statute to prevent accidents on the read, and when one occurs he is not responsible."

NO TROUBLE IN CHICAGO.

Five Cars Start Out This Morning-West [SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.]

CHICAGO, Oct. 8.—Five cars started out from the Sedgewick street barns at 8.30 this morning with ten policemen on each. They carried light loads and were not molested. No regular service will be attempted much Moregular service will be attempted indebefore noon.

Meantime people are marching in a continuous procession, besides filling vehicles procurable at a dime a ride.

The weather is threatening, a slight drizzle having set in at 8.15. It seems likely that it will rain all day

Yerkes declares that the trouble with the invorted gripmen was brought about by del-imported gripmen was brought about by delegates, but that it does not embarrass him as the cable would not start for a week in any case. The machinery is kept slowly moving to prevents any mischief being done to the cable without knowledge of the company, and a patrol is kept along the slot night and day.

day.

The west side men will quit to-night or in the morning. This move will, it is thought, cause a revulsion of public sentiment now generally favorable to the men.

STILL UNID NTIFIED.

The Body of the Unknown Dead Woman Seems Destined for Petter's Field.

The body of the woman who registered as Mrs. Brown at the Compton House last Wednesday night and was found dead from the effects of a dose of rat poison the next day, still lies in the Morgue udidentified. Unless identified by to-morrow, it will be buried in the Potter's Field.

Government Vs. the Bell Telephone. SEPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD. WASHINGTON, Oct. 8. - The case of the Govern

nent against the Bell Telephone Company to the company's patent on the ground of fraud will be heard in the United States Supreme Court to-day. The case comes up a demurrer raised by the Bell people that the Gov-

ISPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD. Clinton Mill were charged at 3 o'clock this mornworks prior to the failure of Graff, Bennett & Co. on March 22. The trustees of the symicale which purchased the property signed the Amalgamated scale. The men employed are all new ones, old employees who had worked there twenty years being discharged.

WAS HE HANGED?

Some People Believe Palladoni Still Lives.

at the Execution.

SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD. BRIDGEPORT, Oct. 8.-A rumor has been started here that Philip Palladoni, the fratricide, hanged in the Fairfield County jail yard last Friday, is still alive.

Owing to the absence from town of Shariff Clarkson and the priest who attended Palls. doni, no statement from him can be case for resuscitation as has ever been known

There are cases on record, according to Medical Examiner Dawns, where life has been restored after hanging fifteen minutes the old disused cemetery where he is said to be buried. Examination this morning shows the old disused cometery where he is said to be buried. Examination this morning shows that the ground has not been tampered with. At first it was stated that Palladoni had been buried alive. The vigilant guarding of the grave was to intercept any physicians from exhuming the body and experimenting upon it with a galvanic battery.

The local physicians deny that they intended to exhume the body, but if there was a medical college in Bridgeport the body would have been secured.

After Palladoni was cut down the physicians were anxious to experiment with the body. A violent seens followed. The priest ordered none to touch the body and appealed to the Sheriff. The latter gave the jail doctor permission to examine the neck. Other physicians attempted to feel of the pulse, but were unceremoniously thrust saide by Mr. Kenny, of Danbury. There was no mark upon the body save a skin scratch upon the neck.

This chain of circumstances before and after the execution have led many to believe that Palladoni still lives.

No blame is attached to the officials; neither to the priests, as they as well as Palladoni belong to a secret order organized years ago in m Italy.

For days and weeks the priest had been in faithful attendance upon the prisoner. He defrayed his own expenses, which were heavy. He also bought Palladoni's coffin and exhibited the receipted bill.

An unsuccessful stempt was made to secure a reprieve, on the plea of insanity. The prisoner was sullen and morose until a few hours before the banging, when he suddenly brightened and seemed anxious for the hour to arrive. He was dressed in the jail chapel by two priests for execution. Afterwards he visited all the prisoners and bade them farewell. He mounted the scaffold with a firm tread. The priest began reciting a prayer. When Palladoni tottered sideways the signal was given to spring the drop.

It was stated afterwards that Palladoni had fainted. It is now thought that the fall side.

Palladoni tottered sideways the signal was given to spring the drop.

It was stated afterwards that Palladoni had fainted. It is now thought that the fall sideways was made to fasten a steel hook attached to a leather collar into the noose and that straps extending down inside the clothing terminated in stirrups over the feet, that the weight of the prisoner could be austained. The body was placed in the coffin furnished by the priest and hurried away. In one hour it was reported as buried.

The priest is represented as saying: "Palladoni has not been hanged. A miracle has been performed. Providence has intervened. Palladoni has experienced no agony."

Careful inquiry at the Italian quarters.

Asylum.

On June 5 the Board held a session in the court-house. Jailer Wells, as well as the physicians, thought Palladoni a lunatic. He sat through the examination jabbering like a

Parrot,
The Board refused to grant a respite until

The Board refused to grant a respite until after the next session of the General Assembly, or in any way to interfere.

Palladoni's stratagem was so perfect as to fool not only one physician, but all the experts who visited him. It was decidedly one of the most cunning pieces of work ever carried out by a prisoner.

After the priest arrived the prisoner underwent a wonderful change. This, as well as the other reasons mentioned, has led people to believe that Palladoni has cheated the gallows.

gallows. Regarded as a Studied Insult.

sador to the Holy See has sent out invitations for a sorree on the night on which the Emperor William is to give a reception to the diplomatic bedy at the Quirinal. Fair and Cooler Weather.

For Eastern New York-Futr, cooler, northerty minde: O DO CORAL

The Weather To-Day. Indicated by Blakely's tele-thermon

Average for corresponding time last year, 68 2-9 days

Bridgeport Will Be Excited Until the Grave Is Opened,

That Exciting Scene in the Jall Yard

The physicians say that the circumstance attending the hanging made it as hopeful a

The body was cut down in thirteen min and the neck not broken. Palladoni's neck was not broken. A guard has been kept over the grave in vened. Palladoni has experienced no agony."

Careful inquiry at the Italian quarters, where Palladoni is said to be in hiding, has failed to disclose any light in the matter, and the authorities no doubt will open the grave to ascertain the truth of the assumption.

Should the grave be empty there is little doubt but that Palladoni still lives.

Palladoni fooled the physicians last April by pretending insanity. Prominent physicians were called to the jail to examine him. Drs. Lander, Porter and Wordin made frequent visits and became perplexed. Judge Lockwood petitioned the Board of Pardons to order the prisoner committed to the Insane Asylum.

INT CABLE TO THE PRESS NEWS ASSOCIATION. 1
LONDON, Oct. S.—A despatch to the Daily Chrostfele from Rome reports that the French Ambas-

